

WAKEBOARD PORTUGAL

CIDADE DE TOMAR ≈ RIO NABÃO

3 AUGUST 19

#TOMARPRO

TOMAR PRO is back again in 2019, with a more challenging course layout and more action outside the water.

Part of the Wakeboard Portugal strategy, this event is the 5th WWA Pro event happening in Portugal since 2015.

You can count with a crazy good event, good weather, great food and an awesome closing party!

HOW TO GET THERE

TRAIN: The railway station is located within five minutes' walk from the city centre. There are direct connections from Lisbon to Tomar (a 1h30m-trip) but not from cities to the North of Tomar such as Coimbra, Aveiro or Porto. If you come from Lisbon airport, take the train at Oriente station in Parque das Nações. There are direct trains to Tomar. The trip to Tomar takes about 1h30m. If you come from Porto airport in the North, you have to exit at Entroncamento station and take the connection train to Tomar. The train service is run by Comboios de Portugal (CP) (english version <https://www.cp.pt/passageiros/en/>)

BUS: There are also daily buses from the main cities in the country to Tomar. For further information, please go to: <http://www.rede-expressos.pt/> (english version <http://www.rede-expressos.pt/default.aspx>)
